With quality agricultural soils and a location close to town, this farm is a great investment!

Located off of Lovette Road near Lumberton in Robeson County North Carolina, this small farm offers numerous possibilities for a land investor. The soils are excellent farm land that produces good yields of corn and soybeans. The farm borders the city limits of Lumberton, which offers the opportunity for future residential development. Lumberton is the county seat of Robeson County and offers some excellent restaurants as well as shopping and a major hospital. The nationally recognized Wild and Scenic Lumber River is located close to the farm, and a public boat ramp for canoeing, fishing, and hunting is only a few minutes away. Deer hunting is great on the farm as well. The sellers are motivated and ready to consider all offers!
