With a great location in a quiet country town, this farm is a great place to call home!

Located on Brooklyn Avenue in Harrells in Sampson County North Carolina, this small farm is a great location to build your home in the country! Harrells is a small quiet town known for Harrells Christian Academy and a yearly tractor pull. It is convenient to Wilmington and Clinton on Highway 421 with very little traffic. The cleared field features quality agricultural soils for row crops or could be converted to pasture for your horses. The pine timber will be ready for a thinning in a few years to produce income. A Biologic food plot would bring in plenty of game for some great deer hunting. If you are looking for a farm in the country to call home this one is for you!
