With merchantable pine timber and great game populations, this timber investment tract also offers great hunting!

Located on Ervin T. Richardson Road near Nakina in Columbus County North Carolina, this tract is loaded with timber and full of game! The loblolly pine plantation is ready for a first thinning, and there is mature timber ready to harvest. Thinning the timber will produce income that could be used for building additional roads and BioLogic food plots. Take a look at the timber stand map for more detail on the timber. With hundreds of acres of farm land on the west side of this tract, and thousands of acres of timber land on the east side, this property has the potential to be a hunting hot spot. If you are looking for an income producing timber tract that also offers great hunting potential, this one is for you.
