With longleaf and loblolly pine timber, income from pine straw, home sites, and frontage on the Lumber River, this diverse property is a great investment that also offers recreational opportunities!

Located on Gainey Road near Wagram in Hoke County North Carolina, this diverse tract offers income from timber and straw raking as well as great hunting and potential home sites. Various age classes of planted longleaf and loblolly pine are located on the property, some of which are currently being raked for straw. County water is available. The farm is located convenient to Laurinburg and Raeford. Raeford is the county seat of Hoke County, and Laurinburg is the county seat of Scotland County. This is a quiet rural area, yet only minutes from shopping, dining, and a hospital. The property has over 1,700 feet of frontage on the Lumber River. There is an access point at Lumber River State Park just down the road for canoeing, fishing, and duck hunting. The Lumber River is a nationally recognized Wild and Scenic River. Additional acreage is available. Buyer will be responsible for the survey.
