With great agricultural soils and game population, this is a great farm to invest in!

Located in Orrum in Robeson County North Carolina, this farm has great agricultural soils and plenty of deer. It has two large fields that could be leased to a farmer and a small field that would make an excellent BioLogic food plot. A pond on the farm provides an opportunity for fishing and shooting some ducks. There is no road frontage and the farm is located well back from the highway so it is very quiet. Access is by deeded easement. An additional 50+/- acre farm is located nearby and both can be purchased together at a bargain price! Seller is ready to move these farms as soon as possible!
