With a quiet location in the country, but close to town and the beach, this property offers potential home sites and room for your horses!

Located on Caison Loop Road near Winnabow in Brunswick County North Carolina, this is a nicely wooded property that would make a great country estate! The property is gated and fenced. There are numerous trails in place leading all the way to the back of the property. Multiple options are possible on this property, from a country home site, hobby farm, or horse farm, to deer hunting. A small BioLogic food plot in the middle of the property would attract game from all directions. With a very convenient location halfway between Wilmington and Southport, it is only minutes from the Brunswick County Beaches. If you are looking for an estate size property in a quiet rural area, this one is for you!
